

McInturff & Associates

Sourcing Engineer, NPI (Job #2662)

This person will work as an integral part of the sourcing team comprised of Supply Chain, Engineering, and Program Management. Experience should focus on supplier qualification and development.

Essential Job Functions include:

- Participating in strategic planning to meet customer requirements
- Coordinating efforts and providing detailed information at all levels related to sourcing, selection, qualification and benchmarking of suppliers (Supplier Risk assessment & Supplier Development)
- Working closely with the GSC & plants to assess AVL and driving research and results
- Managing requirements for all suppliers regarding the quality/system and regulatory compliance (SQE)
- Participating in the deployment of purchasing control systems and Supply Chain Systems tools
- Collaborating related work with SQE function and plants

Requirements include:

- BS in Engineering or technical discipline with secondary education or experience in business and procurement function
- 5 years experience in healthcare related procurement, facility, engineering, quality and program management
- Supplier management skills to include CPM, Inventory Control, Statistics, Problem Solving, Purchasing, Quality, Project Management, Materials, Costing and Quoting
- Strong written and oral communications with the ability to sell concepts and assist in strategy design.
- Ability to persuade others for change in design, strategy, supplier selection and SRM

Location: Marlborough, MA

Salary: $85,000 – 90,000 plus bonus

Recruiters for Supply Chain, Materials and Operations
Bob McInturff
McInturff & Associates, Inc.
209 West Central Street, Natick, MA 01760
508-653-4050 Bob@McInturff.com